WHAT IS THE LOBSTER BAKE

The Lobster Bake started in August, 2005, as an event to kick off the upcoming intercollegiate sports season. The event was attended by 80 individuals.

Last year, attendance grew to more than 425 attendees and generated $13,000 for athletic scholarships.

Lobster Bake 2011 not only kicks off a new season of ThunderWolves intercollegiate athletics, but helps raise funds for the Pack Club Scholarship Drive. The goal of the Drive is to provide the necessary resources to ensure academic and athletic success for CSU-Pueblo's 400 student-athletes, 45 athletic department staff, and 16 intercollegiate sports program.

THE PACK CLUB

The Pack Club is the cornerstone of CSU-Pueblo athletics, raising money to fund athletic scholarships and operating funds to assist our student athletes to be competitive at the highest levels in NCAA Division II.

With the rising costs of higher education and today's economy, external sources of funding is vital to maintain a high quality athletics program and to ensure the academic and athletic success of CSU-Pueblo student athletes.

Since joining the RMAC in 1996, the ThunderWolves have won 34 conference team titles, qualified for 37 NCAA Division II National Tournaments, crowned 35 All-Americans and had 376 student athletes earn Academic All RMAC honors. In addition Pack student athletes contribute over 3000 hours of community service each year in the community of Pueblo and maintain an average GPA of 2.96.
